Simpson earned sales commissions of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) on sales of lumber.

10.

During his career with Stock Building Supply and its corporate predecessors, Simpson developed a close working relationship with Metric Constructors.

11.

During the approximate time period of 1983 through 2001, Simpson procured and serviced approximately 33 multi-family jobs with Metric Constructors.

12.

For each job that Simpson procured and serviced with Metric Constructors, he earned sales commissions of three percent (3%) on sales of interior trim, exterior trim, windows, siding, roof trusses, floor trusses, interior doors, exterior doors, locks, bath hardware, stair parts, shutters, columns, and gable louver, and sales commissions of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) on sales of lumber, with his compensation never deviating from this formula.

13.

Around the time period of early 2000, Metric Constructors was looking to enter into a purchase order with a building supplier for a job at Fort Carson in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

14.

Simpson was Stock Building Supply's lead man in Stock Building Supply's attempt to obtain a purchase order from Metric Constructors for the Fort Carson job.

15.

Carl Frinzi was the individual for Metric Constructors who made the decision as to which building supply company would supply the Fort Carson job.

16.

Around the time period of early 2000, Carl Frinzi asked Simpson if he could supply the Fort Carson job.

17.

Simpson told Frinzi that Stock Building Supply's corporate parent, Carolina Builders, also had a company in Colorado, Crissy Fowler, through which Simpson could supply the Fort Carson project.

18.

Shortly after Simpson told Frinzi that he could supply the Fort Carson project through Crissy Fowler, Frinzi had a business meeting with Glenn Simpson and Bob Gordon in Atlanta, Georgia. At this time, Gordon was Simpson's boss at Stock Building Supply.

19.

At that meeting, Frinzi made it clear that, in light of his long working relationship with Simpson, that he wanted Simpson to handle the Fort Carson account.

20.

At that meeting, Bob Gordon told Frinzi that Glenn Simpson would handle the Fort Carson account.

21.

Frinzi also had a later business dinner with Simpson and Tom Kostelecky (of the Crissy Fowler organization) in Colorado. At that dinner, Frinzi was assured by Mr. Kostelecky that Simpson would handle the Fort Carson account.

T-267 P 08/14 F-966

22.

Frinzi decided to give the Fort Carson job to Carolina Builders.

23.

Frinzi's primary reason for giving the job to Carolina Builders was that he had been assured that Simpson would handle the account and receive the financial benefits associated with handling such a large account.

24.

In mid-June, 2000, Bob Gordon asked Simpson to consider taking a $10,000 lump sum payment in lieu of commissions on the Metric Constructors, Fort Carson order. Simpson refused the offer.

25.

In late July, 2000, without obtaining Simpson's agreement to the change in compensation, Stock Building Supply made a direct deposit of $10,000 into Simpson's account.

26.

Simpson was eventually forced to leave Stock Building Supply in Autumn 2001 because of the way he had been treated in this matter as well as the way he had been treated on some smaller accounts after July 2000.

27.

Through the date of the filing of this Complaint, approximately thirteen million dollars ($13,000,000.00) of supplies have been purchased for the Fort Carson project, of which approximately one million dollars ($1,000,000.00) has been for lumber. Simpson is entitled to approximately $375,000.00 in commissions from the Fort Carson job, as well as future commissions earned on the Fort Carson job.

28.

Simpson is entitled to commissions on some smaller accounts.

COUNT 1

O.C.G.A. § 13-3-44(a) PROMISSORY ESTOPPEL

29.

Simpson incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-28 of this Complaint.

30.

Bob Gordon promised both Simpson and Carl Frinzi that Simpson would sell and service the Fort Carson account.

31.

Tom Kostelecky promised both Simpson and Carl Frinzi that Simpson would sell and service the Fort Carson account.

32.

Bob Gordon and Tom Kostelecky each reasonably expected that his promise would induce Simpson to give his best effort to get the Fort Carson job from Metric Constructors, and that his promise would induce Carl Frinzi to give the job to Carolina Builders.

33.

Both Simpson and Frinzi relied on the promises from Gordon and Kostelecky.

T-267 P.10/14 F-966

34.

Simpson may enforce the promises made to Frinzi.

35.

Injustice can be avoided only by enforcing the promises of Gordon and Kostelecky and awarding the commissions generated by the Fort Carson job to Simpson.

COUNT 2

QUANTUM MERUIT AND UNJUST ENRICHMENT

36.

Simpson incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-35 of this Complaint.

37.

To date, the Fort Carson project has generated approximately thirteen million dollars ($13,000,000) in sales for Stock.

38.

The reasonable value of the services provided by Simpson to Stock in procuring the Fort Carson job is sales commissions of three percent (3%) on sales of interior trim, exterior trim, windows, siding, roof trusses, floor trusses, interior doors, exterior doors, locks, bath hardware, stair parts, shutters, columns, and gable louver, and sales commissions of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) on sales of lumber, which to date is approximately $375,000.

Complainr.

40.

During his approximately nineteen years with Stock Building Supply and its predecessors, Simpson's past dealings with Stock regarding compensation never deviated from a formula of sales commissions of three percent (3%) on sales of interior trim, exterior trim, windows, siding, roof trusses, floor trusses, interior doors, exterior doors, locks, bath hardware, stair parts, shutters, columns, and gable louver, and sales commissions of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) on sales of lumber.

41.

Stock breached its contract with Simpson by not allowing him to receive commissions generated from the Fort Carson job.

42.

Simpson has suffered actual damages to date of approximately $375,000 from the breach of contract regarding the Fort Carson job.

COUNT 4
Equitable Estoppel

43.

Simpson incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-42 of this Complaint.

44.

The representations by Bob Gordon and Tom Kostelecky that Simpson would sell and service the Fort Carson job were calculated to convey the impression that Simpson would receive the commissions generated by the Fort Carson job.

45.

Bob Gordon and Tom Kostelecky, individually and/or collectively, expected that Carl Frinzi would act on their representations to give the Fort Carson job to Stock Building Supply and that Simpson would continue to work extremely hard to obtain the Fort Carson job for Stock Building Supply.

46.

Bob Gordon and/or Tom Kostelecky, at the time of making their representations, knew that Stock Building Supply would not permit Simpson to receive the commissions generated by the Fort Carson job if Simpson obtained the job for Stock Building Supply.

47.

At the time that Bob Gordon and Tom Kostelecky made their respective representations that Simpson would handle the Fort Carson job, Simpson did not know that he would not receive the commissions generated by the Fort Carson job.

48.

Simpson relied on the representations by Gordon and Kostelecky that he would sell and service the Fort Carson job.

49.

Simpson's position changed prejudicially in reliance on the representations by Gordon and Kostelecky.

COUNT 5
FRAUD

50.

Simpson incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-49 of this Complaint.

51.

Bob Gordon and/or Tom Kostelecky, at the time of making their representations, knew that Stock Building Supply would not permit Simpson to receive the commissions generated by the Fort Carson job if Simpson obtained the job for Stock Building Supply.

52.

Bob Gordon and Tom Kostelecky, individually and/or collectively, intended that Carl Frinzi would act on their representations to give the Fort Carson job to Stock Building Supply and that Simpson would continue to work extremely hard to obtain the Fort Carson job for Stock Building Supply.

53.

Simpson relied on the representations by Gordon and Kostelecky that he would sell and service the Fort Carson job.

54.

Simpson was deceived by the representations by Gordon and Kostelecky that he would sell and service the Fort Carson job.

55.

Simpson has suffered damage as a result of relying on the representations by Gordon and Kostelecky that he would sell and service the Fort Carson job.

WHEREFORE, Simpson prays for the following relief:

- 1) That process issue and that the Defendant be served and be required to answer this Complaint as provided by law;
- 2) That Simpson be awarded compensatory and punitive damages for the intentional tort of fraud complained of herein;

3) That Simpson be awarded actual damages of at least $375,000 for the conduct complained of herein;

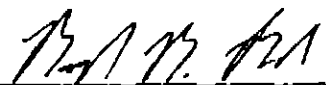

4) That the Court craft a remedy designed to avoid injustice pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 13-3-44(a);

5) That Simpson have a trial by jury;

6) That the Court assess attorney's fees and all litigation costs against the Defendants for the misconduct complained of herein;

7) And for such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.
